

For Immediate Release

15 June 2009

Arden Partners Plc

Andrew Heath Appointed Head of Equities

Arden Partners is pleased to announce that Andrew Heath will shortly be joining the company in the newly created role of Head of Equities.

Andrew has a wealth of experience within the financial services sector having held senior positions with Hoare Govett, ABN Amro and most recently as an Executive Director at Numis Securities.

Jonathan Keeling, Arden's CEO said "We are taking the opportunity to build our business now – we know this will pay off as the market continues to recover."

Andrew said "I am extremely excited to be joining Arden and very much looking forward to working within a team that is both highly regarded and respected in the City"

Andrew will take up his post in mid-June.

Arden is an investment bank, founded in 2002 and admitted to AIM in 2006. It has offices in London, Birmingham and Bristol as well as strong international links.

- E N D S -

For further Information, contact

Jonathan Keeling
Chief Executive, Arden Partners

0207 398 1600

Mark Edwards
Buchanan Communications

0207 466 500